In re: Eaton v. Carroll, C.V.No. 07-281-JJF

Dear Sir or Madam:

I received an Election Form, dated June 13, 2007, in response to the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus I filed in the above matter. Attached to my initial filing is a motion for appointment of counsel, due to my debilitating medical condition. Currently, I must rely on others for assistance.

It is imperative that the motion for counsel go before the Court before I can return the Election Form, because I cannot litigate my case. Judge Farnan appointed counsel in my medical suit for this very reason. If I return the Election Form, the matter will be ruled on without any briefing, but I cannot brief the case because of my medical condition.

Can you please put my motion before the Court, so I can get a ruling, or at least a stay, in the matter, before the form is due.

My medical case is Eaton v. Snyder, C.V.No. 01-733-JJF.

Thank you very much for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully,
